Dear Community Members,

You are cordially invited to a meeting hosted by Pastor Mikeal D. Lovejoy Sr. at St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church. This gathering serves to discuss opportunities for volunteering and supporting SOTERIA Ministries in their mission to empower individuals and the community through various initiatives.

Whether you prefer to join in person or virtually, your presence and input are highly valued. Let's come together to make a positive impact in our community.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Subject: Call for Volunteers - SOTERIA Ministries

Hello Potential Volunteer,

SOTERIA Ministries a unit within St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church, is dedicated to empowering individuals and the community through education, mental health awareness, healthcare initiatives, and financial stability. Rooted in Christian values, our mission is to promote holistic growth and well-being within our community.

To strengthen our impact and increase our chances of securing grants, we are seeking committed volunteers to join various committees and support our mission. Building a team with strong core competencies in business practices is vital for showcasing our organizational capacity to potential grantors.

We invite you to submit your resume for consideration and join us in making a meaningful difference in our community.

Deadline for Resume Submission: August 20, 2024

Please send your resume and a brief statement of interest to stpeterpraise@gmail.com.

Thank you for your dedication to serving our community and contributing to our shared goals.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Mikeal D. Lovejoy Sr.' The signature is written in a cursive style.

Mikeal D. Lovejoy Sr.
Executive Director, SOTERIA Ministries
Sr. Pastor, St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church
